France Pays Sorrowful Homage at Bier of Its Great Marshal.

MOST of the world shares with France its great sorrow in the loss of its distinguished soldier, Marshal Ferdinand Foch, generallasimo of all the allied armies during the World war, who died Wednesday in Paris. Marshal Foch was seventy-eight years of age and had been ill for nearly three months. He suffered an attack of influenza which developed into a pulmonary trouble and was followed by complications of the kidneys. A resultant heart weakness claimed him.

Not since Napoleon's body was brought back from St. Helena in 1840 has France witnessed a funeral of such surpassing your as that arranged under direction of the French chamber of deputies to honor the dead marshal. For twenty-four hours previous to the funeral, which was held on the 20th, the body lay in state under the Arc de Triomphe, near the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. The high and low, the rich and poor, in continuous procession passed by the bler to pay homage to France's greatest hero of modern times. Gen. John J. Pershing, who was one of the morshal's most infimate assoclates and supporters during the war IN CASA OF FIRE-Call the tele- and who is recovering in Paris from Riviera for recuperation, but canceled his departure to attend the funeral and act as one of the honorary pallbenrers.

Honors seldom paid to any one but the most distinguished American soldlers was the tribute of the United States army to the memory of Marshal Foch. General Pershing was designated to represent the army at the funeral lo Paris. On the day of the funeral, by orders of the War department, the flog of every military post and station was displayed at half must and valute of twenty-one guns was fired at regular intervals during the day.

President Hoover, immediately on learning of the great marshal's death. dispatched a message to the French government expressing the sorrow of the American people for the people of France over the loss of a great nathough hero. Warm tribute to the fallitary genius and the human qualities of Marshal Forth were pold by other bigh officials of the government.

When Marshal Foch, with sure grash, temorkable strategy, and rare power of coordination, was directing the allied effort which finally broke the German lands, he was In command of more him than anyone had led in the listery of the world. Marshal forh best altracted world ottention at the Crat Lattle of the Marne, when tre mint the former message to blacklet Marshat Joffre, "My left and right wings are shattered. I shall attack with my center." He did and broke up the German offensive and forced a retreat

It was this approves, with its manifestations of building determination to win even in defent, that singled him out as the man for supreme leadership when unliked command of all the al tled articles was decided upon in the spring of 101%.

Ru It comes that almost on the eleventh anniversary of the greatest moment of his carrer, when to him passed command of a follitary machine more rast than any the world had ever decomed of. Forth, here of the first Mairre, has breathed life last.

In 1021 Marshal Foch came to this country as a guest of the American Legion. He covered 20,000 miles and his lourney led him through the Rast the people for flocking to Middle West, the wheat fields of the and the plantations to the Routh. Ills trip was climated in the national convention of the Legion at Kabasa City. Hondreds of thousands of Legion: naires and citizens thened out in all principal cities to see and hour Mar-

THE Mexican revolution is rapidly petering out. The expected great buttle at Torreon falled to materialize when the rebels evacuated the place and started their retreat northward. At last accounts they were still going. Gen, Jesus M. Aguirre, rebel leader

In Vera Cruz, was captured at Agua Catelli, following a battle in which many were killed on both sides. He was promptly court-martialed and executed. President Portes Gil ordered photographs taken of General Aguirre before and after execution. These will be used to prove to the public that Aguirre has really been executed. The government continues to meet its pay rolls despite the mounting costs of war expenses. Future revolutions in Mexico must count with the radio and the broadcosting stations, officials say. The desertions, the discontent, and the quarrels of the rival rebel leaders were made known to the Mexican people almost as soon as they were known In the rebel camps, and this has had a powerful effect on the popular mind.

BIDS for the construction of ten of the fifteen cruisers nuthorized by the naval building bill passed by the last congress are to be asked by Secretary of the Navy Adams. Designs of the new cruisers have been completed and all that now remains is for the Navy department to set forth the terms under which the bids will be asked. The new vessels are to be the fastest and most powerful cruisers of their class ever constructed in the United States. Three of the vessels will be built in government yards and the balance in private establishments. Five ships are to be started this year and five the latter part of 1030.

PRESIDENT HOOVER has already found two places convenient to Washington where he can indulge in his favorite sport of fishing whenever opportunity affords. Two places within short distances of the capital have been placed at his disposal. One of these is the historic Catoetia Manor estate at Catoctia, Md. The second fishing pince selected is in Shenandoah National park, Virginia. A new game ladge to be erected near the head waters of the Rapidan river in the Blue Bldge mountains will be occuried by the President during his nating trips in that section.

SENATOR BORAII has announced Lis determination to oppose American entrance into the World court when the testeed protocol is sent to the secote in December.

In a statement leaved in Wasting ton, Senator Borah attached the World const as representing merely the legal i disposiment of the League of Notices. and dramine of the authority to face welvery opinions in international dis-Lives of the league. He predicted et it the World court would keeper touten an a traily great internathen if retinance on one it discards the prictice of framing address optakers. OFFICIAL laquier has falled to fix O the blame for the accident to which 14 passengers were killed when a giant irl motored Ford passenger plane crashed at Newsek, N. J. The preliant, the unest in heavier highair aviation in this country, occurred when the plane, loaded with sight secing passengers, lighting a gale with disabled engines, crashed into an fron freight car and was cut in two.

GOV. HENRY & JOHNSTON has governor of Oklahowa by the state senate court of impeaclment and that body found him guilty of s charge of general incompetency, preferred by the house of representatives. He was exoperated on hine other charges brought by the house. The sonate vole came as a dramatic cilmux to more than two years of polit ical turbolence, which reached the inpenediment pitch in 1937. At that ilme, however, Johnston succeeded to dispersion health legislature by court action after they had sought to conveno on their own call.

T EGISLATION necessary to trans-L fer responsibility for prohibition enforcement from the Treasury department to the Department of Justler, as recommended by President Hoover in his inaugural address, is in course of preparation, according to Attorney General Mitchell. However, It is unlikely, in view of the difficulty of the problem and as well as the President's desire to confine the forthcoming special session of congress to farm relief and tariff revision, that the dry reorganization will be submitted to congress until the next regular session convenes in December, STRENGTHENING of the enforcement of all laws, with special emphasis on none, is the announced policy of the Hoover administration. No special law, such as the Volstead nct, is to be singled out for special nttention. The President's expressed hope is to obtain better law enforcement and a lessening of crime through judicial reforms, reorganization of enforcement machinery where necessary, and the building up of public respect for all laws.

The President's purpose in arranging for the appointment of a law enforcement investigating commission is to determine the facts and then work out an enforcement system which will result in a substantial permanent adyange toward the enforcement of all

DLOODS again are taking their heavy spring toll in lives and property in various sections of the country. The Mississippi at Quincy, Ill., has reached the highest mark in 25 years. Levees along a 50-mile front were buttered by the angry waters. and patrols were kept on duty night and day strengthening the danger points with sand bags. Several towns and smaller communities in Illinois are under water and thousands are homeless. The property loss cannot yet be estimated. Two breaks in the levee near Quincy flooded 20,000 acres of farming land. In Alabama and Georgia Incalculable damage has been done to property by swollen rivers and there has been considerable loss of life. Many towns and rich farming sections have heen inundated and highways have becen made impassable. Sections of Florida have also suffered heavily, Food and other supplies are being delivered by avlators on a regular schedule.

In sections where the waters have abated the work of rehabilitation has niready commenced. Residents of the flooded towns were returning to their homes inoculated against disease, prepared to restore their ruined build-

DEASTIC reductions in penalties for elalations of the inturio liquor control act were announced at Toronto when the government introduced surprise amendments to its liquor legislation. Fines and terms of imprisonment mandatory upon conviction are cut in half. To United Rigles visitors the most important change is probibition of taking liquor purchased to fintarly outside the province. Visitors who legally purthose liquor there must consume it whether production against advicery thefore they leave Outains If they wish to remain within the law of the province. A man caught on a tealn bound for the Colted States with liquor in his possession will be liable to a fine of $200 and two mouths in July for baring liquor in an illegal place. It was explained that this was not a blow almed at rom-runblag, but at hip-rooning

> THE problem aroused by the seizure of a truck load of figure consigned to the Slamese legation in Washington is being solved by place under course of formulation by, the administration and police officials. Under the new system foreign officials enjoying diplomatic immunity from arrest will be permitted to transport liquor, from lialtimore to Washington without disturbance from prohibition officers or the police if a duly accred-Hed embassy or legation official rides the truck with the wet cargo.

Ololomate desiring to transport a consignment of wines and whiskles from Baltimore to Washington will be furnished crestentials informing all who may fogulre that the careo to diplomatic liquor and, as such, enjoys Immunity from selsure.

Mental pictures every car buyer should have

COME DAY you will consider buying

Keep in mind these pictures made from photographs of scenes at General Motors' 1268-acre Proving Ground. A car wallowing in a sunken road with water over the hubs . . . a car bucking a long stretch of cruel bumps and potholes . . . a car straining to reach the top of a heart-breaking hill . . . a car doing twists and turns and other acrobatics that few cars are ever called upon to do.

Such are the tests given advance models of a General Motors car at the Proving Ground. The tests involve speed, power, endurance, braking, riding comfort, handling ease; fuel, oil and tire economy, body strength - every phase of car construction and performance. When every test has been met, the factory goes ahead and builds your car like these proved models.

Keep these pictures in your mind. They will come in handy next time you are buying a car.

THE PARENTS' POINT OF VIEW

I presume bad I been a parent chould have been us blind to the fond parents at irlbute to their offispring, and did I helleve half of what is told me, there would be more saints in the world, more scholars, more geniuses, more men whose characters approach perfection than I feel that there are.

Brown has been detected by lds in structor in the act of coesing from a neighbor. The evidence when the two papers are compared is namistakable, but the boy deales the charge, and so informs his father. "My son has never told a lie in his life," the father writes me, "and when he says that the paper he handed in is entirely his, I believe him absolutely."

Now young Brown is ninetien, and the situations into which a youth may stumble during pineteen years are varied. The times when expediency or safety auggests a slight twisting or evasion of the truth are many, treasion makes it seem wiser often not to tell quite all the truth, and to find a youth of placteen who has never unconsciously or with design taken refuge in one or another of these subterfuges is at least unlikely.

"When did you get in last night?" Brown's mother asked. Brown is supposed to be in by ten.

"A little after ten," he replies. I was. In fact, one o'clock, but it seemed wiser if a little less truthful to say so. think I was a pretty truthful boy, but to say that up to alacteen I had niways stuck to the exact truth would be palpable exaggeration.

The TOWN DOCTOR

BELLING A TOWN IS LIKE SELLING ANYTHING ELSE

If you are a thinking resident of the place where you live, you desire the world get sold on your town.

Before you can get sold on it yourself, and before you can sell it to others to anywhere near maximum degree, there is a certain amount of study and analyse necessary. That is, it is necessary if known ethics of good business are adhered to. Sad but true, however, this is altogether too seldom done in things civic.

The first question to be answered is, "In there a market-a demand

The demand for good, live, wide-hwake communities greatly exceeds the supply. Every day people sie asking, "Where is there a good town in which to locate"-for any one of a thousand reasons. Twenty percent of your motor traffic is in the market for, or can be sold a new location. Men at the heads of large industrial concerns, people in all walks, of life, in fact, everyone is looking for good towns-good communities.

Few people realize the extent to which industry and business go to find good towns. There are in Chicago alone dezens of corporations, concerns and firms who have special departments to do nothing else but find out if a jown is suitable for the purpose they have in mind. With some it is for location of a branch factory, employing hundreds; others for a distributing point, requiring twelve to fifty; others for place of residence for the representative and family who handles the company business in that area, and there are others who, looking into the future, just want to know.

And this is your opportunity IF your town is in position to take advantage of it.

The second question: "Is your town marketable suitable for sale, as

To make it marketable, the bugs not be eliminated - the monkey wrenches fished out of the machinery, so that when sold, it will stay sold. What business man is there that doesn't know what happens to any concern that places a product or service in the hands of the American public that, when sold, doesn't stay sold? Every thinking man knows that if spells disaster; but in the face of the very knowledge, they expect their town to "go over" with the same American public, without eliminating those things that are known to provoke desatisfaction, create loss of interest, and unsell the customer.

The first bug in the machinery of most communities is that of "contemptuous familiarity". You walk down the street and look at hundreds of things that repel other people, but you do not see them. You go to your store or office and there are things that others abhor, but you fail to recognize them because you are so familiar with them. At the same time, above you, below you, and on every side of you, there are "acres of diamonds that have never been mined. It is a matter of being "so close to the picture that you can't see the frame."

Look around you put yourself in the position of a stranger and look for the things that would unsell you. Bee your community as others see itthink about it-talk to your neighbor about it and then do something to eliminate those things that repel, and "get behind and push" those things

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior class of Gould Academy presented the annual class play on Wednesday ovening, to a large and ppreciative audience,

The play selected was "Anne, What's Her Name'', a three act mystery comy dy which was unlike anything heretofore presented by the school. It-was full of startling and amusing situations which kept the audience guessing from the gruesome prelude to the final drop of the curtain.

To give special mention to any one of the east would seem unjust since What Does It Means each played his or her particular role so admirably. Every little detail was so accurately carried out that the performance might have been a credit to professionals. Seldom has a Bethel audience seen a local play more effectively staged than was the one of these young ameteurs and too much credit cannot be given to their director, Miss Ellen Cottrell.

The specialties were good and well rendered. Most acceptable music was furnished by Albert Bean. Every one property men cooperated in a manner highly commendable to the Class and the net proceeds of $140 was most gratifying. All in all, the Senior Class play of 1929 was a pronounced success.

CHAPTER L—With his chum, Gaspard Lecroix, half-breed, and their dogs, Brock McCain, youthful son of the Hudson Bay factor at Hungry House, is wintering in the Wilderness of the Yellow-Leg, trapping and hunting. Pierre Lecroix, inther of Gaspard, has disappeared with his dog team, in that same country, a year before, Experienced trapper and woodsman, the complete disappearance of Lecroix and his dogs mystifies those who knew him, His son is convinced he met with foul play.

CHAPTER II.—After a narrow escape from 'rretrievable disaster—the loss of their canoe and provisions—the boys reach the Yellow-Leg river. A schooner, faintly visible in the distance, excites their curiosity. Gaspard indulges in morbid thoughts concerning his lost father.

CHAPTER III.—Overestimating his strength, Brock has a scrious mishap. He is saved by Tash, his lend dog, who brings Gaspard to the scene. The boys reach a country which they believe no white man has visited, and prospects for a splendid fur catch are good They find evidence of the presence of a white man, and at once connect him with the mysterious schooler. A fixed purpose takes possession of him—to learn what happened to Pierre Lecroix. Visiting his trap-lines, alone. Brock is taken prisoner by a party of Cree Indians and a white man, CHAPTER V.—Answering the white man's questions Brock conveys the idea that he and Gaspard have powerful friends, and his captors hesitate to harm him. While Brock is securely tied up for the night, Gaspard steals into the camp, cuts his partner's bonds, and the two escape. Brock, now conconvinced there is something sinister in their surroundings, promises Gaspard he will go the limit in the endeavor to clear up the fate of the missing Pierre Lecroix.

CHAPTER VI.-Gaspard sets a trap for any spy who might come prowling around the camp in their absence. The half-breed sets out on a hunting trip leaving Brock to his own devices. Caspard is ambushed on the trait but kills his attacker. a Cree Indian

By December, they had trapped enough fur to wipe out the "debt" allowed them by Angus McCain in August. But although Gaspard worked hard and successfully at his trapping, he took little interest in Brock's anticipation of their return to Hungry House in the spring and the wonder their rich fur pack would arouse. He was patiently waiting for

"You bettair stay," protested the balfbreed, "I go ver fast."

"No, I'm going with you to take care of you. You're too reckless," insisted the white boy. And so it was finally arranged.

Leaving Silt-Ear and Kona loose, and securely wiring Yellow-Eye and Flash, to prevent the fight which would surely follow the absence of the masters, the boys gave the dogs a gorge of carlbou and started to circle the upper end of the lake, each carrying in his pack provisious for three days and a rabbit skin blanket. "We work down dat shore back een de bush."

Both boys drew their rifles, slung on their packs, from the skin cases which protected them from the snow, and carried them in their mittened hands. They had left no man's land and reached the enemy's country, Anyone crossing their trail would follow them up. Their lives now might bang on the slightest mistake, So, on reaching the black timber of the eastern shore of the lake, they separated and traveled abreast, a hundred yards apart; near enough to support each other, immediately, in case of trouble, but too far apart to be caught in the same ambush. The warning which should mean danger or a discovery of importance, was to be the "eek-eek," of the willow ptarmigan; the rallying call for help, the squawk of the horned owl.

So, with cocked rilles in the hollow of the left arm, ready for swift use, eyes roving in a circle, the two stole noiselessly through the cover of the spruce down the lake shore, stopping by agreement, every quarter mile, to

Helps to Keep Children Well and Free from Worms

Constipation is your enemy—
especially is it to children. Symptoms are: sour stomach, beiching, offensive breath, heavy, dull eyes,
constant headaches and general out-of-sorts, grouchy feeling. Let
Dr. True's Elixir bring you proper, quick relief as it has Mrs. Bargent's children.

A Well Prepared Advertisement

Th. 434 BEETS

An advertisement should do four things. It should attract attention, interest, create desire and cell.

If an advertisement is well written and well gotten up it will do this.

Every merchant who has spent his life in his business can write a good advertisement if he will give it the necessary time and thought, and if he will write as though he had his customer before him telling him of the good points of his merchandise,

An advertisement that is poorly or hastily written will not bring results, no matter how large the circulation of the medium in which it is run. On the other hand, a well written advertisement will bring results if only four people read it.
